

United States Department of Agriculture
Natural Resources Conservation Service

Helping People Help the Land Through Farm Bill Programs

Conservation Technical Assistance

CTA provides conservation planning services to private and public individuals, groups and entities, for planning and implementing conservation practices that address natural resource concerns

Conservation Stewardship Program

CSP encourages private land stewards to maintain & enhance conservation performance through additional conservation activities

Technical and financial assistance through a 5-year contract

Wildlife Habitat Incentives Program

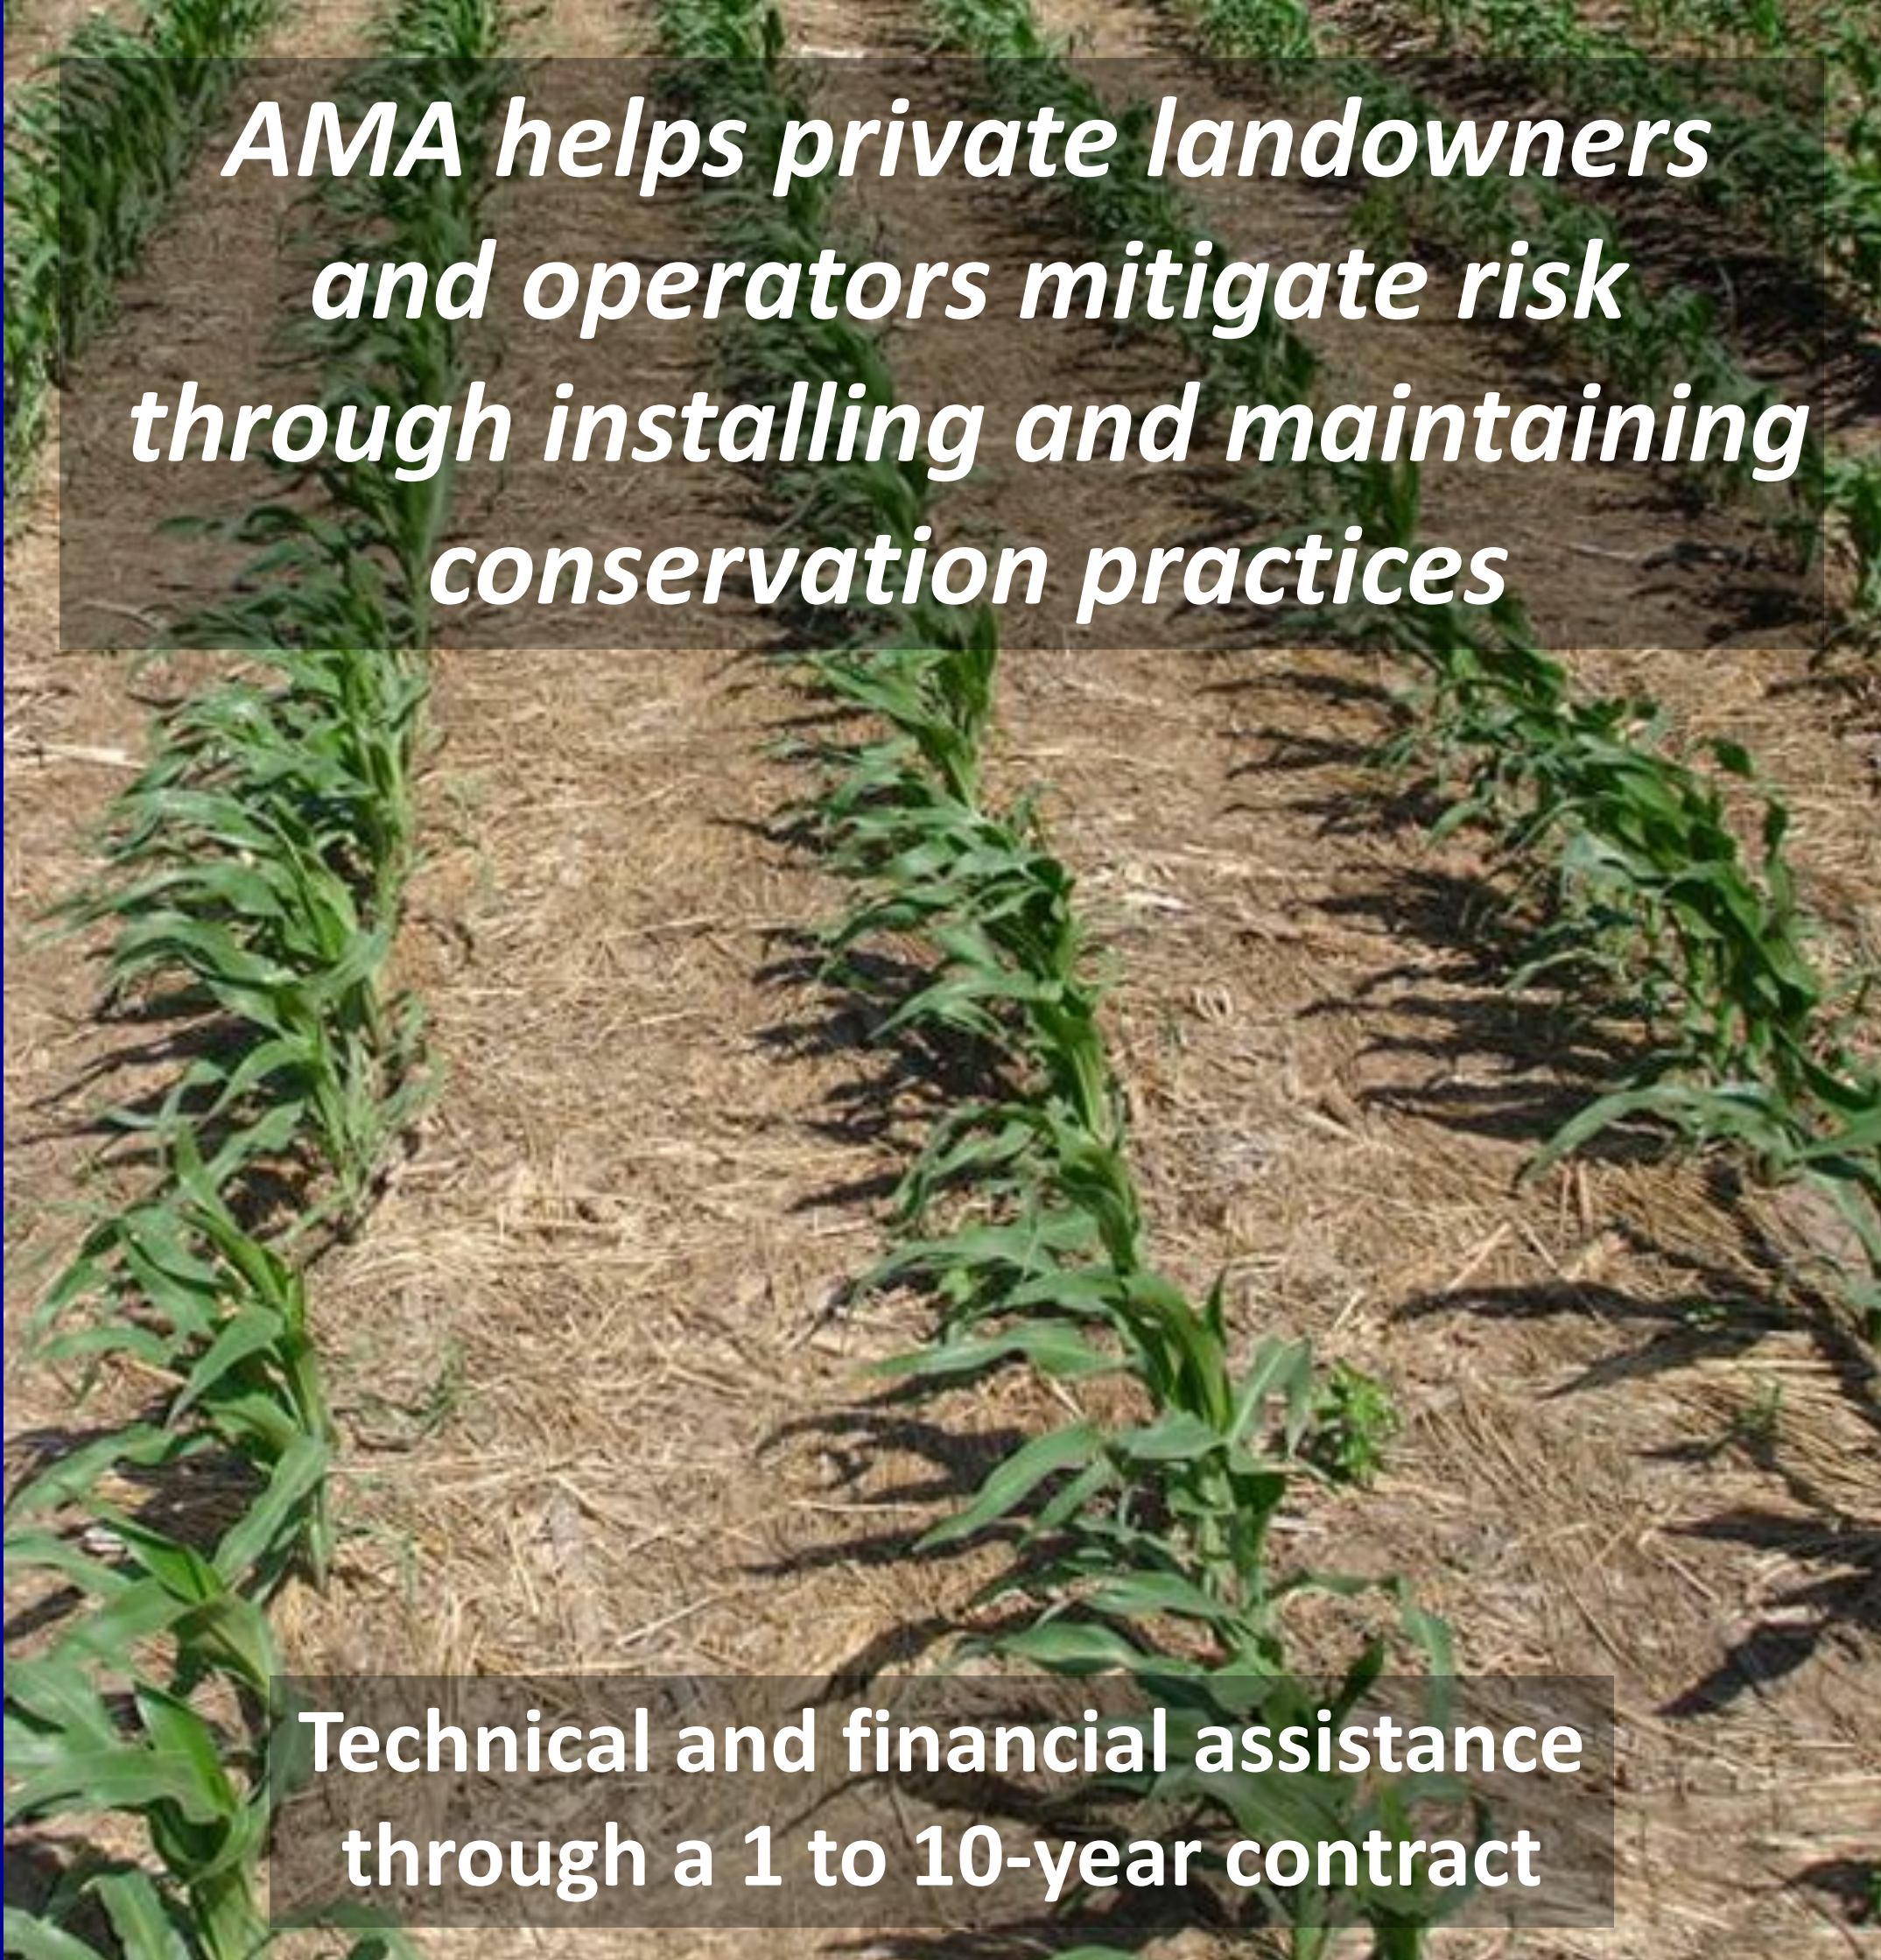

WHIP helps private landowners and operators improve fish and wildlife habitat and restore natural ecosystems

Technical and financial assistance through a 1 to 10, or 15-year contract

Agricultural Management Assistance Program

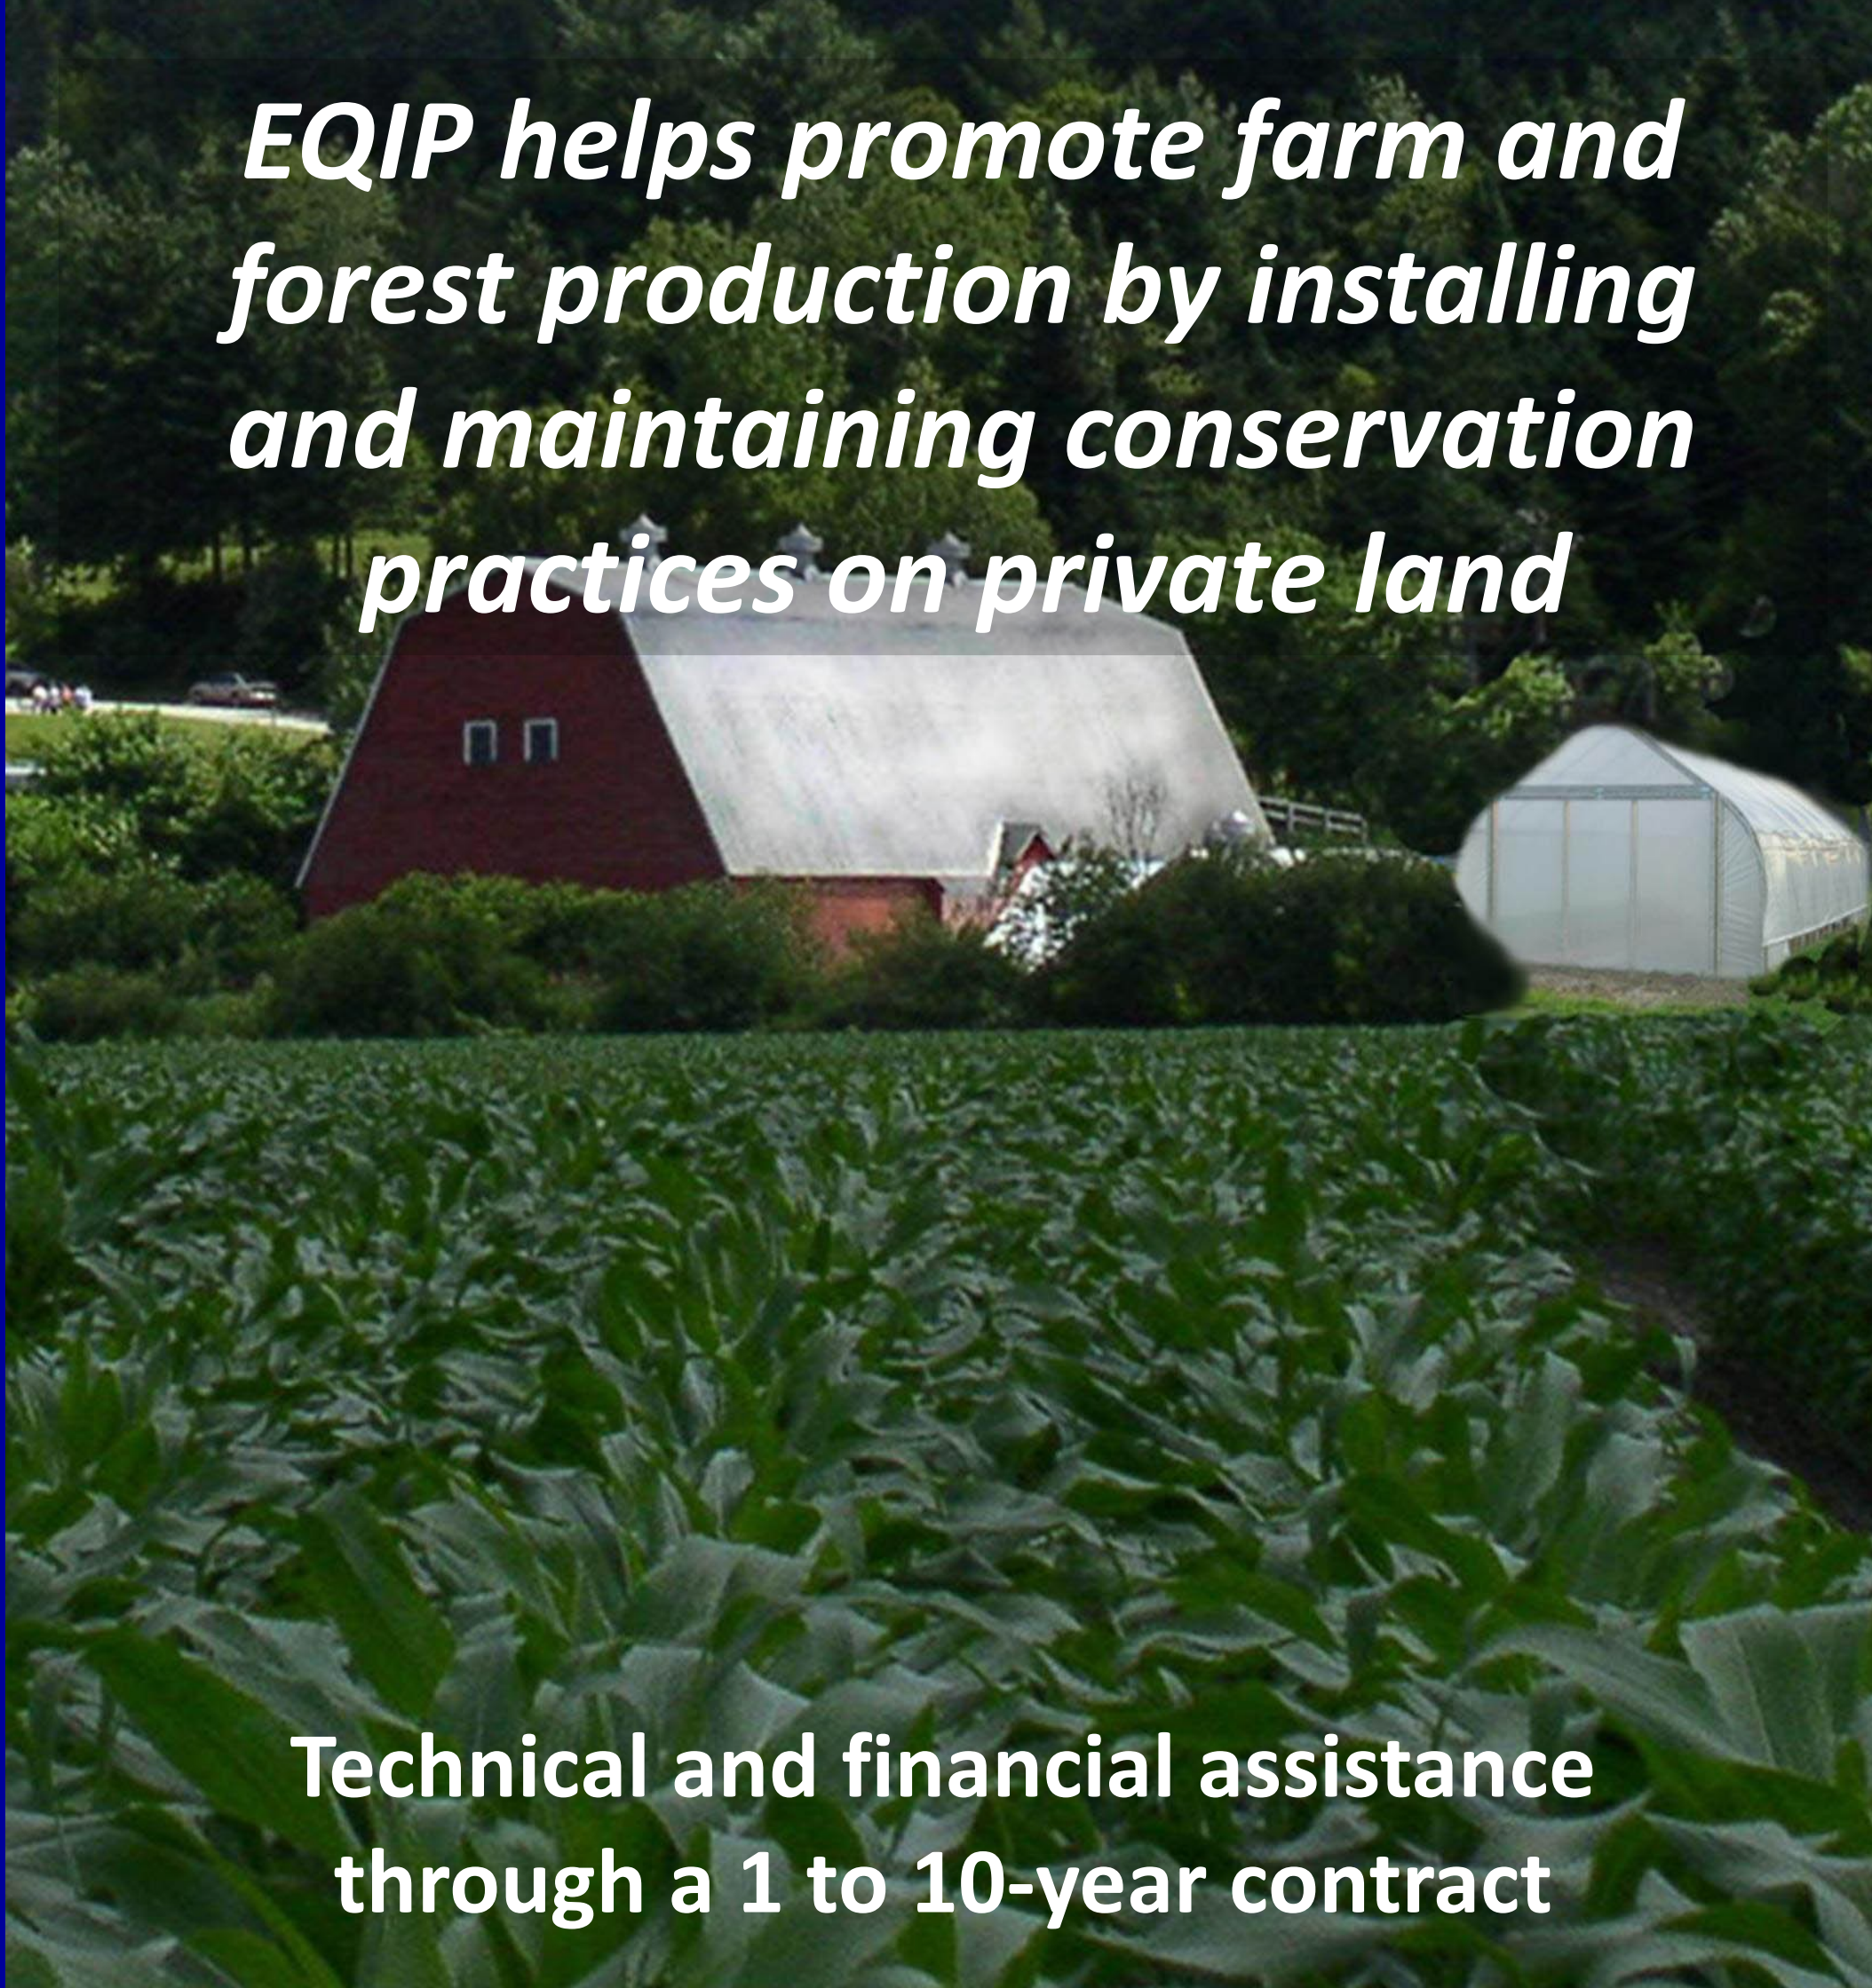

AMA helps private landowners and operators mitigate risk through installing and maintaining conservation practices

Technical and financial assistance through a 1 to 10-year contract

Environmental Quality Incentives Program

EQIP helps promote farm and forest production by installing and maintaining conservation practices on private land

Technical and financial assistance through a 1 to 10-year contract

Wetlands Reserve Program

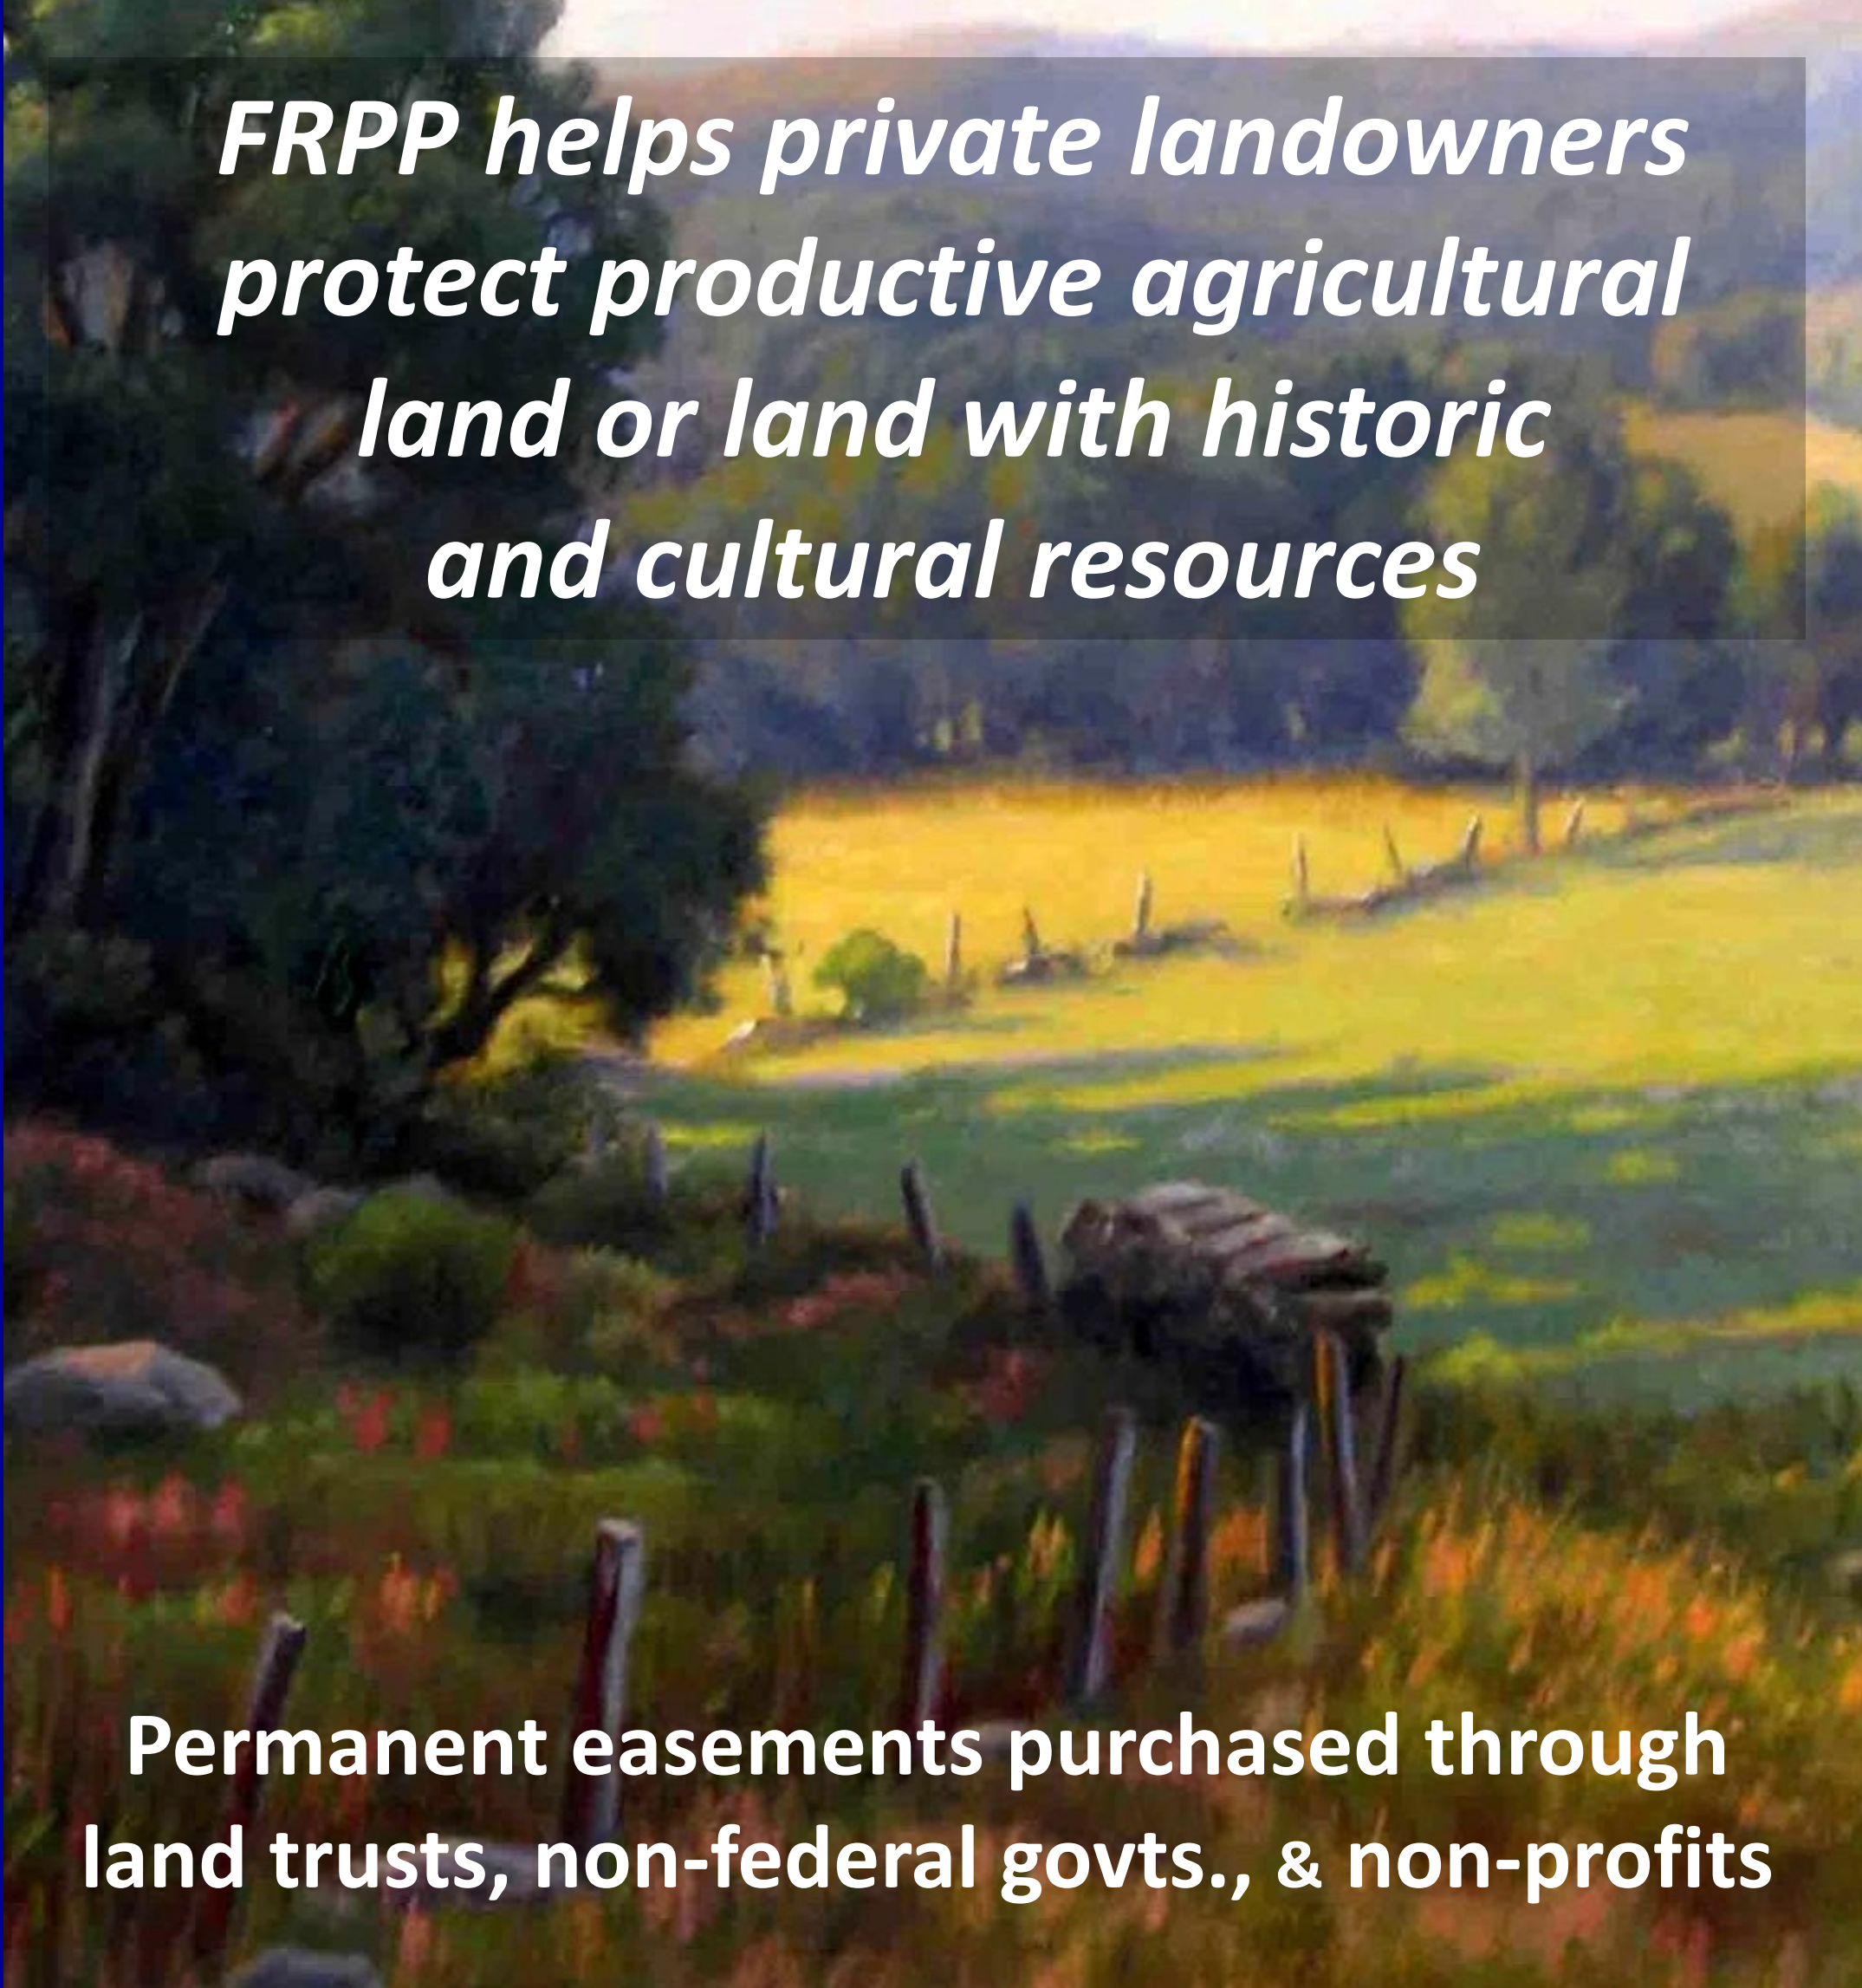

WRP helps landowners and operators restore and protect degraded and altered wetlands on privately owned lands

Permanent easements with restoration, and restoration cost-share agreements

Farm & Ranch Lands Protection Program

FRPP helps private landowners protect productive agricultural land or land with historic and cultural resources

Permanent easements purchased through land trusts, non-federal govts., & non-profits

Grassland Reserve Program

GRP helps private landowners and operators to restore and protect grassland, rangeland, pastureland, and land with shrubs and forbs

Permanent easements and 10, 15, or 20-year rental cost-share agreements